

- The Mera is easy and highest trekking peak in Nepal.
- Mera Glacier.
- Trek through the Sherpa village of the Everest area.
- Sen Tenzing and Jimmy Roberts first time successful ascent of Mera on 20 May 1953.
- Climbers can enjoy with snow-capped world's highest mountains above 8,000 meters Everest, Lhotse, Makalu, and Neighbor Mountains.

Mera peak climbing is popular, easy, and the highest trekking peak in the impressive Khumbu region eastern part of Nepal. It raises to the south of Everest and to the northeast of Lukla. Technically, The Mera is not a difficult peak in comparison with other peaks in Nepal. It is ascending snow slopes that rarely exceed 30 degrees to the top. It is the perfect choice for physically fit and basic climbing knowledge. Tenzing and Jimmy Roberts first time successful ascent of Mera on 20 May 1953. The trails they used still the standard route.

Climbers can enjoy snow-capped the world's highest mountains above 8,000 meters Everest, Lhotse, Cho Oyu, Makalu, Kanchenjunga, and Neighbor Mountains. Summit of Mera base camp is hardly more than a mountain walk across crevasse glacier. High altitude respect and acclimatization must be complete at the recommended time. This usually means reaching the summit a short time after arriving at Lukla. Many people fail to reach the summit because they didn't follow the acclimatization rule. The Glacier Adventure Company has a decade of experience team and a careful design Itinerary. Many times we have successful records of Mera peak climbing.

IMPORTANT NOTE

Climber's safety is our paramount concern while Mera Peak Climbing with Glacier Adventure. Every effort will be made to keep to the above itinerary. Mera Peak is located in the Khumbu region. Glacier Adventure can't guarantee it such as weather conditions, availability of staff and the health of team members can all contribute to change. The guide and assistance guide will try to ensure that the trip runs according to plan. Please be prepared to be flexible if necessary.

Pre-trip meeting

Glacier Adventure hosts the Pre-trip meeting in Kathmandu 2nd day of the itinerary. Climbers introduce the leader. We will provide an opportunity for individuals to ask questions about Mera Peak Climbing. The pre-trip meeting covers personal equipment, acclimatization, and to introduce you to another team member. Glacier Adventure hopes pre-trip meetings have excellent, informative, supportive, and fun.

Acclimatization

Glacier Adventure's Mera Peak Climbing itinerary is focused on AMS (Acute Mountain Sickness) when going up too fast to cause a medical condition serious enough to kill. The high mountain area has less oxygen in the air. If climbers want safe Mera Peak Climbing, their body needs some days to rest in the less air environment. Especially, climbers need to know the heart, lungs/blood diseases to consult their doctor before leaving home. Glacier Adventure's itinerary is designed to try to prevent AMS as much as possible. It is important to remember that some people are more susceptible than others.

Physical condition & experience requirements

Technically, Mera Peak is an easy trekking peak in the Remote Mountain region of the Khumbu. This is suitable for physically fit persons. The climber must be in good health and physical condition. The technical condition is very basic, including the use of ropes, ice-axes, and crampons. Mera Peak climbing is not a technical peak. The climber who has good technical knowledge would be better. The most important thing is a positive attitude that makes this trip successful. If you have any pre-existing medical conditions, it is vital you let us know the details of these before setting off. Also, before coming to Nepal, it's important to consult your doctor regarding vaccination and any other medical concerns the trip may raise. "Medical and emigration expenses are your responsibility."

Insurance

When traveling with Glacier Adventure, climbers must be fully insured, including air rescue, air ambulance, and treatment services. Have any problem? Climbers should be careful in choosing a policy; however, some make special exceptions for adventure travel. Please note that Glacier Adventure doesn't arrange any insurance.

Staff Arrangements

Glacier Adventure staffs try to make successful, enjoyable, and memorable your Mera Peak Climbing. They are innocent, helpful, experienced, and Careful. Your trip leads most professional leaders. Conservation & Biodiversity

Mountaineering (Climbing) Training.

Porter care

Trekking and climbing are adventures. Porter's job is a hard-working job. They carry trekker supplies and baggage that makes a journey easy and comfortable in the remote mountains of the Khumbu region. We ensure all our porters are well trained, well paid. Porters who become sick are treated with the same care and attention as team members and we have previously used helicopters at Tour expense to rescue porters in dangerous situations. For the porter's sake, we require all trekkers to keep their bag weight of 15 to 20kg. We support the work of the International Porter Protection Group (IPPG), Provides help and advice to those organizations to improve the working conditions of the porters on whom we depend.

Accommodations

All accommodations for Mera Peak climbing are twin sharing basic included in the trip cost. The trip based on, standard service and Standard hygiene food. There are three types of accommodations for the trip. Standard tourist hotel in Kathmandu and during the treks, Climbers spends standard Guesthouse which one normal room with wooden beds and foam mattress.
