

Pashupati Muktinath tour is one of the amazing experiences in Nepal. This tour combines Pashupatinath and other UNESCO world heritage sites and Muktinath temple (3800m) with beautiful mountain views through beautiful Pokhara city. This tour gives you the best moment of your life in a short period of time. Travelers need TIMS and ACAP Permits in this tour.

Pashupatinath most important Hindu temple stands on the banks of the holy Bagmati River, Hindu's religious terms this is a powerhouse of Hindu spiritual energy, and is closely connected to Shiva in the form of Pashupati, the Lord of Animals. The pagoda style Pashupatinath Temple was built in 1696 but has been a site of Hindu and Buddhist worship for far longer. Only Hindu may enter from the main gate. The nearby Bagmati riverside has most holy cremation Place.

The temple and religious shrines of Muktinath (3800m) are the most important pilgrimage sites for Hindus and Buddhists in the Himalayas. Pilgrims have worn a path to here for centuries. Travelers see Tibetan traders and sadhus (wandering Hindu holy men) from as far away as South India. The shrines, in a grove of trees, include a Buddhist gumpa, a Vishnu temple, and the Jwalamai (Goddess of Fire) Temple, which shelters a spring and natural gas jets that provide Muktinath's famous eternal flame. It's the combination of earth, water, and fire in such proximity that accounts for Muktinath's great religious significance.
