

Trishuli river was named after the ever-present 'trident' of lord shiva, a popular god of the Hindus. Trishuli is the most popular rafting river with impressive gorges, moderate water a few exciting rapids, some easier sections, all easily accessible from Kathmandu and Pokhara. Some of the well-known rapids encountered are: Snails's nose, Makekhu ladies delight, highway, upset, surprises-bend and pinball rapid. You can combine the Trishuli river rafting with your trekking tour and Chitwan Jungle Safari.

Trip Facts*Departure point:

kathmandu/pokhara

River start point:

Charaundi

River finished point:

Simal tar

Out ward travel time:

3 hours

River grade:

III

